

The passing of this is going to create the loss of many jobs, likely mine. I am a single mother who needs this job to support my son. I would rather have a job and support my son than have to rely on other means of support.